Description and how to apply
Guildford Chambers is an established set of Chambers based in South East with offices in Guildford, Reading and London. Chambers is a regional set with a good client base, which prides itself on the high quality of its members, friendly atmosphere and excellent clerking team. We are offering one family based third six pupillage, and one civil/property based third six pupillage. Applicants must have some experience in these areas, or be able to demonstrate a willingness and aptitude to undertake this work. Applicants can expect to be busy with good earning opportunities. Successful applicants will be supported by a mentor and an experienced and highly regarded clerking team, and will play a full part in Chambers' life. An award of £4500 will be payable in the first 3 months to assist applicants while they build a practice. Any offer of a third six will be with a view to tenancy. A letter of application and curriculum vitae should be addressed to: Mr Simon Morris smorris@guildfordchambers.com or sent to: Simon Morris, Guildford Chambers, Stoke House, Leapale Lane, Guildford, GU1 4LY. All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence. Guildford Chambers applies the guidance set out in the Equality Code for the Bar.
