Description and how to apply

Three Stone invite applications from potential Probationary Tenants (formerly identified as third six month pupils) due to complete pupillage this year. The successful candidate will start to start in or at the end of October 2024.

The successful candidate will sit with different pupil supervisors during their time with us. He or she will produce pleadings, opinions and skeleton arguments in their pupil supervisor's cases, attend conferences with their pupil supervisor, the solicitor and the lay client, attend Court with their pupil supervisor and other members of Chambers, and receive regular feedback on their work from their pupil supervisor. The successful applicant will participate fully in the life of Chambers.

There will also be a real opportunity for the right candidate to begin to build a practice both by appearing in Court on their own, and in led work, and undertaking their own paperwork. The right candidate can* expect to be briefed to appear in Court regularly and frequently.

Applications will be treated in confidence and should include the following information:

- (1) A detailed CV which should also sets out what you have seen and done during your pupillage
- (2) A selection of anonymised pleadings, skeleton arguments and opinions that you have done during pupillage
- (3) Confirmation of who you have sat with over the last 9-10 months

Please send your application and arrange for at least three of your supervisors (if possible) to send a reference to Justin Brown at justin@threestone.law

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis but should be made as soon as possible. We will aim to revert to applicants with any invitation to an interview within 7 days thereafter.

Three Stone Chambers is an equal opportunities employer committed to promoting and achieving excellence, equality and diversity in Chambers and at the Bar generally.

*After an initial assessment period.
