Description and how to apply
18 St John Street Chambers is a large, Manchester based, multi-practice chambers with a dynamic Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence & Costs Department. We act in cases covering the full spectrum of Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence, Costs Law as well as civil litigation across England & Wales with a particular focus in the North West. As a result of a high volume of work, we are looking to recruit a probationary tenant/ third six pupil to start as soon as possible, with a view to becoming a permanent tenant. Members of the department regularly appear in cases of high value and complexity. We offer experienced professional advice from the earliest stages of any given case through to its conclusion acting for claimants and defendants. As so much litigation is capable of resolution without recourse to the courts, the ability to draft articulate pleadings and schedules is central and applicants will be expected to demonstrate that they have developed these skills during pupillage. The successful applicant will demonstrate a commitment to building a strong, successful Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence & Costs practice on the Northern Circuit. The probationary tenant will be allocated a member of chambers as a mentor, however,

they will also be a part of a friendly, supportive department who are always happy to make themselves available, in addition to specialist civil clerks. This probationary tenancy will last for six months and is unfunded; the successful candidate will be expected to generate their own income. Successful applicants can expect to be busy and in court regularly.

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis and should be made by way of CV and covering letter addressed to: Emma Bowie, Chambers Manager at ebowie@18sjs.com. All information will be treated in the strictest confidence. Chambers operates an Equal Opportunities policy and adheres to the Equality and Diversity Code for the Bar.
