

Law Reform Essay Competition 2024

Declaration

Declaration of Integrity

1. I confirm that I have read and understood the rules and plagiarism policy of the essay competition and fully complied with them.
2. I declare that no part of my essay has been generated by artificial intelligence and that the content is entirely in my own words, save that i) AI may be used for the limited purposes of research, proof-reading and checking spelling (see Rules for further details) and ii) quotations are permitted if identified by quotation marks and referenced. I make this declaration in the context of a competition, the winner of which will receive a financial prize, and understand that my essay will be assessed on the basis that my declaration is true.
3. I consent to the Bar Council copying and distributing my work in any form and using third parties to verify whether my work contains plagiarised or AI-generated material, and for quality assurance purposes.
4. I confirm that I have kept a record of all searches using AI tools and the text of the corresponding output. If I am selected for a spot check, I will produce this record.

By completing the application form for this competition, you consent to this declaration.
